

How to Report a Tundra Fire

If you see signs of a fire on the tundra—smoke, flames, or scorched earth:

Alaska Interagency Coordination Center's hotline

907-365-5555 or 1-800-237-3633

North Slope Borough Fire Reporting Line:

1-800-478-9300

Forward pictures to akyfdc@firenet.gov.

What to report:

Location (GPS, nearby landmarks, or river names)

Size of fire (e.g., "the size of a football field")

Smoke color and direction

Time you notice it

Your name and contact (optional but helpful)
